Deani Goyette—Deani Goyette is a business/technology teacher at Forsyth High School. With 25 years teaching experience, Deani is currently the business/technology instructor, Business Professionals of America advisor, yearbook sponsor, and Academic Olympics coach. Involved with the FEFE program since 2002, Deani has been a Fellow (New Fellow of the Year—2003), Teacher Ambassador, Master Teacher, and Specialized State Trainer.

The user friendly, hands on approach of the FEFE curriculum materials allowed her to take ownership of a previously challenging life skills course. Fond of the computer components in the FEFE curriculum, Deani has used them in classes ranging from seventh grade keyboarding to high school business math.

Having earned a BS in Business Education from Eastern Montana College, she is currently working on her master’s degree in Curriculum and Instruction with a Library Media Option from the University of Montana.
